THE GRENADA SENTINEL.

VOLUME LXX. GRENADA, MISSISSIPPI, FRIDAY, JANUARY 12, 1923. NUMBER 34

CASE CONTINUED TO JAN. 26

Call for Vouchers Causes Continuance of Contempt Charge vs. Supervisors.

Four members of the board of supervisors, Messrs. James, Mattingly, Anderson and Cunningham ,went to Batesville Tuesday to answer before Judge J. G. McGowen, chancellor, on the charge of contempt for failure to carry out an order of his Honor which instructed the board of supervisors to levy a tax of 27 mills on the property embraced in the Yocona-Tallahatchie drainage district in Grenada County. These gentlemen were accompanied by County Attorney W. M. Mitchell, and several citizens, Messrs. W. M. Dubard, T. C. Staten and Dr. W. H. Whitaker, who own property in the said district.

The supervisors from Tallahatchie, and Leflore Counties were also cited on the same charge. The supervisors in two counties of the district, Carroll and Quitman, had made the levy hence were not subject to contempt charges.

Some Greenwood citizens are deeply interested in defeating the ordered tax levy and Hon W. M. Whittington was there to represent them. In truth, the supervisors of Grenada County were somewhat in conjunction with those of Leflore County and were assured that Mr. Whittington would take care of the situation before the court.

When the case was called, Mr. Whittington made a motion that those seeking to impose the tax levy to pay the expenses of engineers up to the time the proposed district was killed by the State Supreme Court, be required to file vouchers for all expenditures. The court held with Mr. Whittington, hence a postponement was had until Jan. 26, when the matter will again come up at Batesville.

It is understood that those resisting the tax levy hold that the property owners who were striving to get the drainage district, and not those who opposed it, should pay the cost incurred for the reason that those opposed won and that they think it unjust to tax them with a thing which they did not want and which was killed in the courts.

Mr. Rounsaville was not present the day the refusal of the board to pass the order was up, hence it is supposed that he will not be liable on the contempt charges.

GROCE CARVER WANTS ANOTHER TERM AS TAX ASSESSOR

In the announcement column will be seen the name of Mr. Groce Carver who asks another term as Tax Assessor of Grenada County.

Mr. Carver was reared in district 5, south of Holcomb. He came of good parentage, and it can be said to his credit that since he was a mere boy he has indentified himself with those who stood for better morals and he spiritual uplift of his community. As the years have passed by, he has become more conspicuous in his attitude and has been sanely zealous in his religious ideas. And while this has been true, he has had the good sense to be considerate and tolerant of all who held views not in harmony with his.

The office of Tax Assessor was never before more important in the history of Mississippi. Almost the very air which ones breathes now must bear some sort of a tax stamp, hence the very great importance of seeing that all property is listed and that something like a fair value is placed on it. Mr. Carver's record for the present term is before the people of the County, and by it he will be tried at the coming primaries, a test, that he no doubt will welcome.

Certain it may be said of Mr. Carver that he has done his best, with the opportunities before him, to qualify himself for public service, and he can safely say that he is capable of making a better officer the next term than he did this one.

Mr. Carver will no doubt utilize every opportunity to place his candidacy before the voters of the County.

SECOND ATTEMPT TO DISTRIBUTE GOLD

Those who were listed in the attempt made Dec. 23 to distribute the Christmas prizes in Gold did not show up with their numbers, so on Wednesday afternoon of this week, another attempt was made. So if persons who were fortunate enough in trading to get No. 52,769 will present the same to Mr. Roy Doak, the Santa Claus of this affair, he will give the holder $75; in like manner, he will give $50 to the fortunate trader who was complimented with ticket No. 60,159—the last named ticket was got at Pressgrove's. There was no name on the ticket first above listed.

SUPERVISORS RAISE DEMONSTRATOR'S SALARY

The board of supervisors at its meeting last week raised the salary for the present year of County Farm Demonstrator White from $2600 to $3000. In addition to this, Mr. White is paid $600 by the federal government. The fact that the board re-employed Mr. White and increased his salary would seem to justify the conclusion that Mr. White's conditional or probationary employment of a year ago has satisfied the supervisors that he is rendering satisfactory service. Mr. White is doing more common sense work than any demonstrator the County has ever had.

HON. B. S. ELLIOTT FOR REPRESENTATIVE

Acting upon the request of Hon. B. S. Elliott The Sentinel places his name formally before the Democratic electorate of Grenada County as a candidate for Representative.

Mr. Elliott was elected four years ago as floater-representative for Grenada and Montgomery counties. This year, by custom this place goes to Montgomery county. Hon. V. A. Winter, the present Representative from this county, it is understood will not offer for the same place again.

Mr. Elliott is one of the County's good citizens. He believes in the Christian religion and he makes an honest effort to carry the principles of the Master into everything he undertakes. That sort of a man is always a good neighbor, a kind friend and a dependable agent. He is conscientious in what he does and just in his dealings. He is looking forward always for better things and believes that the best for his State and for his country is in the future.

Mr. Elliott made a record in the last Legislature that reflected creditably on his constituency and that was a matter of pride and satisfaction to his friends. That the experience gained should be worth much to him, in the event of his election this time, of course will be readily conceded. He undoubtedly enjoyed the confidence and the esteem of the best minds in the lower house of the Legislature and was given a prominence that comes to but few who have had no more experience in legislative matters than he. It was no uncommon thing to hear it said of him by members of the house, "We almost love him".

In a card, which appears elsewhere in this issue, Mr. Elliott sets forth his views somewhat on what is the big problem before the next Legislature. The most thoughtful men of the State will readily agree with Mr. Elliott in his announced determination to see that there is a general cut in all appropriations. In this he is right beyond question, and The Sentinel feels no hesitancy in saying that it believes the people of Grenada County stand ready to endorse any proposition that looks to the spending of less public money and less taxes.

Mr. Elliott states that he will in due time go before the people of the County to discuss such matters as the demands of the hour seem to require.

FLOUR AT WHOLESALE PRICES

Grenada Feed Milling Co. Will Sell Consumer Direct.

The Sentinel calls attention to the ad of the Grenada Feed Milling Co. in which this concern states that it will sell flour, the BEST, to the consumer at wholesale prices. Every barrel or sack is guaranteed. In addition to flour, this concern sells heavy groceries, corn meal and fertilizer at amazingly close prices. This is a splendid opportunity to both the city and country trade to buy at prices that will almost startle.

The Grenada Feed Milling Co. is undr the management of Mr. Joe M. Brown, a stalwart, straight man, one that means to do just exactly what he says and one that will stand by what he promises if it takes the hide off. See him, Mr. Buyer, if you are in earnest about wanting to save money on what you buy.

The Grenada Feed Milling Co. is just below the depot in a part of the quarters that used to be occupied by the "Old Oil Mill". Its phone No. is 10.

...ny a ne... or communi... by these banks. They are a lot of thoughtful men; they are men who seem to realize that they not only have a duty to the great business institution by which they are employed, but to their different communities as well. And in this connection it is well to observe that the Grenada Bank set the precedent some years ago of taking the whole community into partnership. It has sought to emphasize the lesson that whether one was a stockholder or not, the Bank was interested in his growth in business and in all the better things that go to make good citizens, and that likewise these non-stockholders are also interested in the bank. This is a beautiful sentiment, it is a sentiment that tends to make a business prosper, and is one that goes to insure permanency and a better understanding between men. The Grenada Bank has sought to unteach what the world has long seemed to believe, that is that good business never thought of sentiment, or how any act of business might effect the welfare of some individual.

The feature of the meeting was the address of President J. T. Thomas. As has been the case for these years, Mr. Thomas showed an intimacy with the minutest details of all the branch banks that is little less than remarkable. But all of what he said could but have been reassuring to the stockholders. Undoubtedly the coming months are destined to be the most prosperous in the history of the Bank.

Mr. Thomas discussed at some length increasing tax burdens. He said that the Bank and its branches were paying today something near four hundred per cent more in taxes than they were about ten years ago. He urged that there must be a wiser expenditure of public money. He stated that taxes were getting so heavy in many cases that they were discouraging to prospective citizens, business enterprises and capital. Among the things Mr. Thomas touched on which, he said, according to his judgment, there was being expended much useless energy, and a great deal of money from which he could not see that the State was getting adequate returns, he stated that there was being spent at the A. & M. College annually somewhere about one million dollars to teach young men to make successful farmers, yet, he said, that there was but a very small percent, less than 10 per cent, of the students of that College going back to the farms. He said that a survey had been made of two counties wherein the Grenada Bank had branch banks and that only about two in each County were graduates of the A. & M. College and on the farm, and he said that he believed that what was true of these counties was true of the State at large. He said that he had in mind one county which had lost during the past few years a great number of white families and that these families had sons trained at the A. & M. College at the expense of the State and daughters trained at the Mississippi State College for Women at Columbus. He said that something was wrong somewhere and that in his judgment it was up to the school authorities, those asking for funds for these institutions and other educational leaders, to see that these things were righted. He said that there was little use for the State to train young men and young women just to leave the State as soon as they finished at College.

Mr. Thomas said that he sometimes thought that school authorities, as well as church authorities, were putting too much store at times in pretentious buildings. He said that he knew one county where the Grenada Bank had a branch institution that had spent so much in a costly and commodious school building that it was costing practically $1,000 per pupil per year to send to school there —was costing the taxpayers that much. Mr. Thomas said, that in his ...Mr. Thomas reviewed at length the money spent by the Bank and its endeavors to encourage better farming. He stated that the Bank last year set aside something like $8,000 to be given in prizes to farmers in counties where there were branch banks. These prizes went so much for the best four acres of cotton, so much for the best number of acres of corn and sundry other things. The Farm Demonstrators in the different counties were to be used as one of the mediums of getting up the contests and of creating an interest. A list of contestants was furnished the Bank; thereupon a representative was sent into the various counties to interview the contestants listed by the demonstrators, but to his astonishment, it was found that fully three fourths of the contestants listed had never been notified by the farm demonstrator and in a majority of the cases, Mr. Thomas said, the farmer said that he never saw the county farm demonstrator.

Mr. Thomas said, among other things, in discussing the farmers' needs, that he did not need to be loaned money so much but that he did need a better market and better prices for what he raised. He said that if the farmer realized what he should on what he produced that the matter of money would take care of itself.

Mr. Thomas said that it was time for plain talking and serious thinking about all these things and especially about where the State is drifting. He said that good roads did not make the farms produce any more and that fine school buildings and other extravagant expenditures of public money did not add anything to what a farmer could raise, but with these things in the farmers' rear, that if something was not done whereby he could pay for these advantages, that there was bound to be business depression and the swapping or changing of farm ownership.

After some very delightful music furnished by six beautiful and lovely young ladies from Grenada College under the skilled direction of the very popular head of the department of vocal music, Mrs. Dexter, Rev. W. E. Farr, pastor of the First Baptist church, was very appropriately presented by Dr. J. R. Countiss, president of Grenada College, to make an address on the life and character of Mr. J. H. Brown who died Nov. 1, last. Mr. Farr had a fine subject, one capable of furnishing a splendid lesson to young men who are struggling to come to the front, and every one listened anxiously and with saddened hearts to his tribute to the departed bank official whose life had touched in a business way and in many other salautary ways so many different things in this locality.

Announcement was made that the splendid library owned by the Bank and which had so long been a part of the directors' room of the Bank, had been donated to Grenada College and to the Grenada High School. The books in this library represent a money value of about $5000.00.

A luncheon was served in the spacious dining room of Grenada College to the Bank officials and a number of its friends. The menu was a very excellent one. Dr. J. R. Countiss is one of the good friends of the Bank and whenever possible Grenada College always extends some courtesies to the visiting bank officials. The lovely young lady students at the college served the meal. The bankers were carried over the new dormitory of the College which most of them said was one of the handsomest they had ever seen.

The Bank's statement of date of Dec. 29, is a very gratifying one to the stockholders and to the friends of the Bank. As compared with the statement of two years ago when almost every banking institution of the country was "up against it", just as the citizenship of the entire country, the statement shows a remarkably healthy condition and is but another of the many indices which go to show that the business of the country is looking up", getting on safer and better ground. The individual deposits in present statement show, $4,204,606.76 and that there is on time deposit $1,506,047.08. For the same time two years ago, the Bank's statement showed, $648,689.50 in dividual deposits and $310,945.11 time deposits. But the particularly pleasing thing about the present statement is that the Bank has no bills payable while two years ago it had $425,000 in bills payable.

The meeting of these business men in Grenada is always one of pleasure and of delight to the town, and while there have been many exceedingly enthusiastic ones in the days gone by, the one last Monday is destined to be one of the most epoch-making ones in all the history of the Bank.

The Sentinel would like to mention individually everyone present at the meeting, but time and space forbid. Nevertheless, it is going to run the risk of being accused of making some invidious distinctions by mentioning some of the older ones whose faces have honored so many meetings in the past, and one of the first that comes to mind is Hon. J. H. Caldwell, of Charleston, lawyer, citizen, banker, business man, churchman and "rounder". Mr. Caldwell is one of Tallahatchie County's mudsills. Along with him comes that talented and versatile gentleman, also a lawyer, business man and exemplary citizen, Hon. John Kuykendall, also one of the pillars of Tallahatchie County. Parallelling these two men, comes O. C. Leigh, of Eupora. He knows the ins and outs of banking. He is clever in all things. He is honest to the core and a very useful man. What is said of Mr. Leigh can be truthfully said of Mr. J. W. McCracken of Louisville. He is a fine fellow in every sense of the word. These gentlemen are but types of the personnel of the entire force of the Grenada Bank, and when these men are considered, one readily realizes one of the elemental factors in the great success of the Grenada Bank. Somebody has shown mighty fine judgment in yoking up such a fine body of men.

The head cashier, Mr. B. C. Adams, is the right man at the right place. Mr. Adams was born a gentleman and lives it. He strikes no stray notes in business and is fortunate in counting everybody as his friend. He is very intelligently and efficiently seconded by the assistant cashier, Mr. A. N. Rayburn, and this article would not be complete were it not stated that smiling and obliging Frank Romberger sends every one away from his window, pleased.

HON. B. S. ELLIOTT ANNOUNCES FOR LEGISLATURE

Promises To Do His Best To See That Appropriations Are Cut Down.

To the Democratic Voters of Grenada County:

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for representative in the lower house of the next Legislature. I am subject to your will and the action of the primary next August.

I have had the privilege and the honor of serving as your floater-representative for four years. You know what I did then. My votes on every proposition are recorded in the House Journal. What I did I did in the fear of God and with a heart and mind to serve you and the best interests of our State.

I appreciate, of course, that things today are not like they were four years ago, or even last year. We are moving onward. Events are taking place thick and fast nowadays. What one did, or might have done, last year or three years ago, in the light of present events would be unwise and improper today.

I am fully aware that the country is struggling under the heavy load of tax burdens. I am proud to say that I cast my vote against many of the bills urged by the so-called "high pressure" or liberals of the Legislature. And in my humble judgment, we went too far. In saying this, I do not mean to reflect on my good friends, many of whom stood sponsor for these appropriations. I am sure they acted from the best motives. Nevertheless, the big thing before the next State administration and the next Legislature, is the cutting down of appropriations. There must be a general trimming all along the line. There are so many good people before the Legislature urging the importance, according to their viewpoint, of every item in almost every appropriation bill, that one finds it hard sometimes to decide what is best and proper. So, I think, the best thing to do is to trim everything right considerably. Notwithstanding what the State's enterprises are said to "need" or "must have", there are lots of things that we cannot have when we have not the money. So I shall do my best, if made your representative, to see that there is retrenchment all along the line.

I appreciate the past expression of your confidence. The people have been good to me. Whatever fate may have in store for me in the future, I shall carry with me to the better land gracious thoughts of your past kindnesses.

Promising once again to serve you to the best of my ability and in the light of experience and reason obtained by communing frequently with our Dear Heavenly Father,

I am most Sincerely,

B. S. ELLIOTT.

J. B. KEETON SEEKS ANOTHER TERM

Through the medium of The Sentinel. Mr. J. B. Keeton makes known to the people of Grenada County his desire to serve another term as chancery clerk of the County.

As an earnest of what he will do, if reelected, Mr. Keeton offers his record made during the present term. It is unquestioned that he has maintained the standards of the office and that it has been his aim and purpose to give the public honest and faithful service.

Mr. Keeton was reared near Graysport, this County. Something like fifteen years ago, he came to Grenada and became a salesman in one of the leading stores of the town. Later he accepted a place as traveling salesman with the Grenada Grocery Co., a position he filled until conditions forced his country into the World War. He joined the Grenada company that was organized here before there was any draft law and while he never saw service on the front, yet he went to France and remained in France until after the Armistice was signed.

Mr. Keeton had announced as a candidate for the office which he is filling before he reached home. When he got home, he soon began an active canvass and was successful in the second primary.

Experience stands any man well in hand in any business. Hence it is fair to say that his present connection with the office should qualify him to render better service in the future than in the past. Mr. Keeton is a gentleman of energy and of industry. He takes an active interest in those affairs which concern the general public, all of which is necessary in any man who renders himself useful to his community.

The Sentinel feels sure that Mr. Keeton will receive that consideration at the hands of the voters of the County that his candidacy deserves.

The Mississippi School Supply Co., represented by Mr. C. C. White, was awarded the contract.

The Sentinel congratulates Mr. White and it feels sure that the community as a whole is glad that the Mississippi School Supply Co. was the successful bidder.

BREWER CITY ATTORNEY

New City Administration at Clarksdale.

It is with no small degree of pleasure that The Sentinel notes the election of Mr. Ed. C. Brewer to the position of city attorney at Clarksdale by the new administration which went into office Jan. 1.

Mr. Brewer first began the practice of law in Grenada, being associated with the late Hon. S. A. Morrison. When Gov. Brewer retired from the Governorship, he offered Mr. Brewer a law partnership, which was accepted, and he has shown himself equal in every way to every situation which has confronted him. His law firm has had a large practice and is everywhere recognized as one of the strongest legal firms in the delta.

To fill the place of attorney for the city of Clarksdale, is no ordinary affair. Things are done swift and fast in the delta and hardly anywhere is there more things done in a minute than at Clarksdale. Clarksdale has an aggressive people, and it is said that oftentimes there is quite a militant contingent among its population. This, together with the fact that some of the largest business concerns in the delta or in the State are at Clarksdale, goes to show that to be legal advisor and prosecutor in that town is a highly important matter. That Mr. Brewer will prove equal in every way to the very responsible duties imposed upon him, all who know him readily agree.

Mr. Brewer is a very fine young man in every respect. Aside from being highly educated and possessing an alert legal mind, he is an obliging gentleman, one kind by nature and ever ready to do a friend a kindness. He makes friends readily and he knows how to grip his friends to him.

Mr. Brewer married Miss Ione Brown, daughter of the late J. H. Brown, and his wife. She is a very fine woman. She could hardly be less than she is, coming from the home she does. She is cultured, gracious and lovely in all things, but best of all, she is the embodiment of all those attributes and characteristics that have enthroned womanhood above all things human.

In connection with Mr. Brewer's election as attorney for the City of Clarksdale, it will be a matter of interest to some of the older citizens to know that the new mayor of Clarksdale is Mr. L. A. Ross, who was born at what was then known as Ross' mill, Tallahatchie County, and that he is a son of Mr. Thomas Ross, and a grandson of Mr. Alex Ross, and also a nephew of the late L. I. Rice of Tallahatchie County. Mr. Ross is a fine character and is one of the leading citizens and business factors of Clarksdale.

WORK FOR PROGRESS OF STATE

Board Seeks Co-Operation by All To Assist Business and Forestry

In connection with its declared purpose to work for the promotion and establishment of agricultural extension, forestry, public health measures, workmen's compensation act and good roads in the state, the Mississippi Development Board announces that it also is endeavoring to bring about a greater spirit of co-operation between all interests for the common good and seeking remedies looking to the safeguarding and the growth of business and rural conditions within the state. Agricultural and industrial expansion should keep pace with the other.

The expansion of a banker or merchant's business is limited by the general expansion of the community in which he does business. No community, however, can expand while the back country or county in which it is located is retrograding, and the expansion of the county is limited by the growth of the state. Putting it the other way, the state cannot grow if the counties are retrograding, nor can the counties grow if the industrial centers or communities are retrograding; hence no business, whether it be banking, mercantile or any other line, can grow unless the community, county and state in which it is located is advancing. The interests of all are interlocked one with the other and all must work together for their own and the general welfare.

In South Mississippi it is said that 65 per cent of the business is predicated on the lumber industry. The lumber industry probably may pass out within a shorter time than many foresee. Intelligent reforestation will partially take care of the some what distant future, but Mississippi in our day must retrograde or else provide diversified agriculture and industrial expansion to care for the labor now in the lumber industry. Otherwise every line of business will shrink accordingly.

When the Time Comes—What?

When and how the crisis will come is debatable. The certainty of it ultimately is beyond question, unless measures of avoidance are adopted. The investors, both at home and abroad, feel that the principal obstruction to Mississippi's welfare is the lack of appreciation of the necessity for more capital and the proper protection of capital now invested in the state. The small operators, particularly the farmers, are wastefully handicapped by too narrow opportunities, only a small part of which is due to management, the principal difficulties arising from the unthoughted failure of the larger business to co-operate with the small operators and farmers.

These conditions are very much aggravated by the nervousness of capital, growing out of restrictive and repressive state policies. Capital, therefore, to an alarming extent, is disposed to emigrate, but is more willing still to stand by and help develop the resources of the state if assured of safe opportunities and the protection afforded in other states.

If Mississippi permits her capital to escape and her vigor to decline, it will be difficult to rally. The capital which developed the state's natural resources in the past can and will remain and other capital will come if shielded from a destructive policy. If the thinking Mississippi men and women fail to grasp the nettle they invite the midnight hour.

The cities and towns must realize that the development of their back-country will in turn accelerate the communities development and the farmers and other citizens must realize that capital, industries and business enterprises and centers are essential to their progress. Hence, there must be greater team work and mutual appreciation of the necessity of one to the other by the tillers of the soil and the business men and workers of the city or town, for the interest of each is absolutely interdependent upon the other.

Practical Forestry Policy.

Meanwhile the lumber industry, which has meant so much to the state heretofore, should, in the interest of posterity be perpetuated and the activities of the Mississippi Development Board will be directed to the end that a permanent system of lumbering be maintained. To accomplish this an intelligent and practical forestry policy for the state is essential, and there must be proper appreciation of the mutual and individual interests, rights and obligations by the lumbermen on the one hand and by the public on the other, in order that such a policy may be established and maintained.

Experienced lumbermen and practical and technical foresters seem to be agreed that adequate protection against forest fires, so far as the south is concerned, constitutes from 75 to 90 per cent of the problem involved in perpetuation of the forests and continuance of an adequate lumber supply for the country. In the providing and maintenance of proper fire protection, it is agreed that there must be active co-operation between the public, state and federal governments, and private owners of timber lands.

Since a timber crop does not mature in a year, as do ordinary farm crops, but must be carried over a long period of years before the tree crop can be harvested and the proceeds of the harvest realized upon, it is recognized by foresters that the special crop must be accorded special treatment in the matter of carrying charges and handling, especially in the matter of taxation. In order that the public may deal justly by the timber land owners, and in order that private land owners may be permitted to participate in reforestation and perpetuation of the country's timber supply without financial disaster, there must be modification of the present system of annual and general property taxation, in so far as it relates to lands devoted to reforestation.

Provision also should be made by the state for state forest reserves, which do not have to pay taxes, and upon which the public may grow trees on a vastly larger scale than private enterprise could be expected to grow them, and which in the years to come would be valuable revenue producers to the state through the timber and forest products sold from them.

Need Co-operation of All.

These are three of the important points that the most mature thought on the subject of forestry deems most essential in a state forestry policy, and in order to establish these things—fire protection, modification of the present timber land taxation and state forests—legislation is necessary. In the establishment and maintenance of these essential things the federal government stands ready to assist the state with funds, information, co-operation and technical aid.

But in all efforts to obtain such legislation there should be no spirit of bias or prejudice whatever, and no drastic, unreasonable provisions that would mean the imposing of unjust burdens upon any class of citizens or property owners or depriving them of any of their rights. On the contrary, such legislation must be obtained through sympathetic co-operation and proper appreciation by both the timber land owners and the public of each other's rights, duties and obligations.

There must be an efficient official organization created by the state to have charge of all forestry matters and such an organization and its work must be kept entirely and absolutely free from all political influence or manipulation.

DRUG STORE CHANGES NAME

Just recently the name of the Fatherree Drug Co. has been changed to White-Dyre Drug Co. Some time ago, Messrs. C. C. White and J. D. Dyre purchased the store from T. J. Fatherree and, at the time, it was decided to retain the name of the Fatherree Drug Co. for several months.

Since taking over this business, Messrs. White and Dyre have thoroughly established themselves in the confidence of the drug trade in the community and this territory. Mr. Dyre has been the active manager and, by his attention to business and courtesy and fair dealing, has retained the greater part of the trade enjoyed by the former management and has gained a large number of new friends and customers.

RICHARD NASON NAMED AS ATTORNEY FOR BELZONI

It is always a matter of pleasure for The Sentinel to note the promotion of worthy young men, and more especially those who have gone out from Grenada County. The new administration for the town of Belzoni elected Mr. Richard Nason as its attorney, a place The Sentinel feels sure that he will fill with credit to himself and with satisfaction to the citizenship of Belzoni.

Mr. Nason was reared at Dubard, this County, being a son of Mrs. Ada Nason. His father was one of the good friends of the editor of this paper when he was but a mere lad, and it therefore gives him more than usual pleasure to speak a word of commendation of his friend's son, who has shown himself to be worthy of the good name he bears.

Mr. Nason went to Belzoni after he returned from overseas. There is nothing dashing or exceedingly brilliant about him, but he has a fine mind and is one of these characters who will make his way steadily uphill, and who can be depended upon at all times to carry himself well and to meet intelligently and wisely any task he sets himself to do. Mr. Nason is destined to become one of the safest and ablest members of the Mississippi bar.

FRANCE CAN NOT BE BLAMED

France has marched her troops into Germany and taken possession of the great coal regions for the reasons that Germany has failed or refused to pay what was assessed against her as a result of the war.

The Treaty of Versailles did not fix the penalty against Germany in dollars and cents but it did provide for the naming of a commission to fix the indemnity Germany must pay.

The indemnity was fixed in May 1921, we believe, at $33,000,000,000 which was to be paid in installments of $500,000,000 per year, plus an export tax of 26 per cent. The annual payment of the half billion was to be divided into installments. Germany paid some of the installments but defaulted last October, and it was agreed that she should have a sort of moratorium until Jan. 15, of this year. In the meantime Germany has created a pretty general sentiment in many quarters that she could not pay. There has never been any attempt to collect the 26 per cent export tax.

It seems that "feelers" have been out by some other nations in order to "revive business" about fixing the indemnity that Germany must pay within the immediate years at $12,500,000,000, leaving the balance of the $33,000,000,000 to future adjustment. If only the $12,500,000,000 is paid, that will just cover what the allies owe the United States, and naturally this would leave France nothing for the rebuilding of her factories destroyed by the Germans and for the rehabilitation of her territory, so this was not pleasing to France. To require the $12,500,000,000 and the other as soon as she was able, left Germany little incentive to pay now for the reason that she is to be taxed with the remainder as soon as she is able.

Germany has run practically all of her gold out of that nation, and printed paper money until it is practically worthless. It looks to us as if she is stalling and making no honest effort to meet the terms of the Treaty. She started the war. She ought to be penalized to the utmost. We do not blame France for insisting that Germany pay, and pay something now.

We do not believe that any European conflict will come of the taking over of this German territory by France, but if it does, that is the business of France and Germany, and, if "big business" will keep its mouth shut, we can see no reason for the involvement of the United States.

When Tol Thomas says call a halt on public expenditures, and when he begins to say taxes are becoming burdensome, it is time for everybody else to stop to think. There has been no man in Mississippi who has been more generous in this regard, but he now unquestionably realizes that there has been the greatest profligacy in the expenditure of public funds. Mr. Thomas is one of the State's leading citizens and greatest business factors and such men as he are entitled to the public ear about any matter.

Never before in the history of the United States did the whole country need a full dose of thinking so badly as today.

GREENWOOD TO BE CONGRATULATED

We congratulate our neighboring city of Greenwood on the extension of its corporate limits to take in North Greenwood. This addition gives Greenwood a population of over 10,000. Our hats are off to Greenwood. It is a fine town and made up of splendid people. It has always been somewhat under Grenada's watch-care, and be assured that the "City Beautiful" will continue its fostering care. It has indeed been fortunate for Greenwood that it has had Grenada so near by to pattern after in so many things. And it is to the credit of that town that it has had the good judgment to try to emulate the best town in Mississippi.

THE SAME IN WINONA

Winona Residents Speak Out for the Welfare of the Public

It is just the same in Winona as here in Grenada; our friends there speak out in the same glad, earnest way as so many grateful Grenada men and women have spoken in these columns for years past.

Lem Thompson, foreman, Cotton Mill, Winona, Miss., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a great kidney medicine. Several years ago I was working at the carpenter trade and I believe the straining caused kidney trouble. My kidneys were weak and annoyed me day and night. The heavy dull ache across my back and hips was a great annoyance, making it difficult for me to move. After giving Doan's Kidney Pills a fair test I found they were just as they had been recommended. My cure has stood the test of several years. It is seldom that I take Doan's now only when I think it advisable to flush my kidneys."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Thompson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

FILLED WITH PRIDE PAINFULLY FULL

Our idea of a very uncomfortable person, one who is very full of anything, and the most pained of all individuals is that one so filled with pride that he or she is ashamed to ask the druggist for SPIVA'S ONE NIGHT ITCH REMEDY.

"There is no disgrace in having itch, the disgrace lies in keeping it". Our gallant soldiers have recently returned from Europe bringing many contagious trench and camp diseases, also mustard gas burns. You may have itch, tetter, eczema, old sores, new sores, in fact any of the above, then try SPIVA'S ONE NIGHT ITCH REMEDY. $1.00 at your drug store. You will be pleased. The itch mite can't stand it. It kills him. "One night is right."

SERUM PLANT MADE FINE SHOWING

Paid Nearly $27,000 for Hogs and Feed Stuff.

The Cotton States Serum Plant had the best year in its history last year and one that makes a gratifying showing for the people of Grenada County.

The Sentinel learns that the Serum plant paid nearly twenty thousand dollars for hogs last year, almost all of which went to Grenada and Tallahatchie counties. To feed these hogs required nearly $7,000 worth of corn which was also bought in Grenada County. The output of the plant quadrupled for 1922 any previous year.

The plant affords a ready market for hogs, shoats and sows. All are fed ninety days before they can be prepared for use at the plant. The treatment is a very interesting one.

Mr. W. H. Kirk, the efficient manager who has brought the plant to the front where it is, is now on a tour of Wisconsin, Iowa and other middle west states making contracts for serum for the present year. The Cotton States Serum Plant already has a large trade in that section of the country but Mr. Kirk is seeking to still further increase his patrons.

The Cotton States Serum Plant is entitled to patronage of the hog raisers of Mississippi, and it is gratifying to state that it is getting it, but in this, as in most other things, there are a few who believe that something is better many miles away from home.

TAXES DELINQUENT AFTER FEB. 1

As almost everybody knows, all taxes of whatsoever kind, are delinquent after Feb. 1. I therefore want to ask the taxpayers not to overlook this very important matter and to be sure to come to the Sheriff's office between now and Feb. 1, and pay taxes. The law extending the time to April 1, before damages could be added, applied to last year only, and is not in force and effect now. Furthermore, a failure to pay taxes on or by Feb. 1, disqualifies one for voting that year. If it is not convenient for any taxpayer to come to the Sheriff's office, and if he or she will request it, we shall be glad to mail a statement of taxes due, and one can remit by check or otherwise. We are ready to serve you in any way we can, but the law positively states the date at which all taxes become delinquent.

Jan. 12, 1923.

Sheriff and Tax Collector of Grenada County, Mississippi.

EPIDEMIC OF WHOOPING COUGH

County Health Officer Makes Statement to Public.

I know that there are a number of cases of whooping cough in Grenada County, and from information which I have obtained, I am sure that it has reached the point that the County is threatened with an epidemic of it. It is a disease that often proves very dangerous to children. I wish to advise parents and school authorities that children who have whooping cough, or those from homes afflicted with it, should not be allowed to come to school, and where children are at school and known to have it, they should be sent home. Safety demands that children afflicted with whooping cough should be kept at home for a period of six weeks. I ask the aid and the cooperation of the parents of the County and I trust I shall not be called on to enforce the regulations herein indicated, as I am authorized and empowered to do, by law. I especially enjoin the school teachers of the County to be on the alert for whooping cough among their pupils. Wise action on their part may save the practical breaking up of their schools for this session.

January 12, 1923.
Respectfully,
R. A. CLANTON,
Health Officer Grenada County.

NOTICE TO CAR OWNERS, COMMERCIAL MOTOR VEHICLE OWNERS AND TO MOTOR CYCLE, OR TWO WHEELED VEHICLE OWNERS.

Your car licenses are due and must be paid during the month of January, or I shall be required to add 100 per cent penalty. The sheriff has no discretion in the matter. The law is mandatory, and however disagreeable or unpleasant it might be to me, I shall have to follow the law. All car owners of every kind are due to pay license. The owner of every vehicle of whatever kind that is propelled by another than muscular power is required to pay license. Of course such vehicles as fire engines or ambulances are exempt. The law applies to motor cycles or any vehicle where two wheels touch the ground. I therefore want to urge those who own any of these cars or other vehicles to come forward without delay and get your license. We are excedingly busy at the sheriff's office collecting taxes, all of which become delinquent after Feb. 1, and if everybody waits, it might be that we could not wait on all of our friends the last day. Your attention is most respectfully called to these matters.

Grenada, Miss., Jan. 12, 1923.

Sheriff and Tax Collector of Grenada County, Miss.

$1,000 ACCIDENT INSURANCE FOR SENTINEL READERS

$2.50 Gets Paper One Year and Insurance for 12 Months.

The newspapers of the country have been able to secure concessions that enables them to place an Accident Insurance Policy with their readers for practically a song.

For $2.50, we will send The Sentinel one year and write the subscriber an Accident Insurance Policy, which runs for one year, in the North American Accident Insurance Co. of Chicago. It is an old line company. The policy is a standard policy. We write it on ages from 16 to 70, either man or woman. No medical examination. No red tape. In case of being killed by accident, the policy pays $1,000. For disability from accident of any kind, policy pays a weekly indemnity of $10 per week for 3 months. For loss of both feet, or one hand and one foot, f both hands, one hand and one foot, of both hands, and one eye, of both eyes, policy pays $1000. Loss of either hand, foot or of one eye, $500.

There was nothing ever before to equal it. There were never before so many accidents, and it behooves the wise, the sensible, the thinking man to protect against accidents.

Then besides this remarkably low price for SO MUCH, we give tickets in the $300 Gold Contest.

There was never before a newspaper in all the history of Grenada County that made an offer equal to what we are making today.

Do not hesitate because it costs so little, in truth, many insurance policies cost too much. We are only enabled to make this extra ordinary offer because of some special arrangements we have made.

Some of the largest daily newspapers in the United States, more than 200 of them in all, are offering this same insurance policy contract to their readers. Among the newspapers it might be mentioned that President Harding's paper, the Marion Star, at Marion, Ohio; The Washington City Herald; The Times Journal and scores upon scores of other newspapers.

Knowing that there is nothing too good for Sentinel readers, we made an investigation and got the privilege of selling these polices to our readers.

No such opportunity was ever before offered as this Reader Insurance Policy. It is a bonafide travel andaccident policy put out by an Old Line Insurance Company.

While doing a real,a genuine, service for our readers, we make it easier for one to pay his or her subscription.

The cost is just a little over 1-4 of one cent a day--just think of it. Who would not be willing to double this small amount tomorrow morning as a guarantee against accidents?

DON'T DELAY. TIME IS TOO PRECIOUS. ACCIDENTS ARE TOO FREQUENT. THINK ABOUT WHAT SECURITY A $1000 ACCIDENT INSURANCE POLICY WILL MAKE YOU FEEL.

The policy is issued to both men and women between the ages of 16 and 70 for white and colored people. No red tape. No medical examination required.

The newspapers are full of stories of automobile and other accidents every day. You may be the next.

The Sentinel believed that it would be doing something worth while if it could find a way to protect its readers against such misfortunes at a small cost.
